

Right This Way → Giving Back at Thanksgiving Again at Georges Senate Coney Island

27 November, 2025

It's Thursday ~ 27 November, 2025 they said it was supposed to be a crisp day in one of those days that leads the way to almost ~ Christmas and yet just before George opens his doors to everyone on this Thursday. It's the day when Georges loves this the most ~ giving back to the people and community knowing that if for just one person, that person that perhaps sits at home, alone or that person who's family sits ~ at a distance or that person the needs to come in out of the almost crisp air looking for a humble seat and a warm meal.

To all of those ~ George says "Welcome"...

Welcome to the day that invites holidays – the day that he knows all too well is the "Day of Giving".

His plate is full ~ George's plates are always full. Somewhere just this side of Haggerty lies a warm room with a warm fire and a banquet setting with some of the best homemade Thanksgiving dishes that George and his family and kitchen have been creating year after year the love that George has for his customers.

On Thanksgiving Day there is always tables not too far off from that corner booth that George leaves open for just this special occasion. The occasion in the warm room from those glass doors that I have spoken about in my last two writings about George and his Family where good homemade food is made from scratch.
